AMSTERDAM MUSEUM

AMSTERDAM MUSEUM

Amsterdam, a world city? Certainly! And also a city that is small, welcoming and quirky. The city of Johan Cruijff, Rembrandt, Ajax, de Wallen, the United East India Company and hash. ### WORLD-CITY

World-City focuses on the interaction between Amsterdam and the rest of the world. What was, and is, Amsterdam's position in the world? World-City provides answers, but also raises questions. How did Amsterdam and the world see each other, and how do they see each other today? And how do you see them?

SAVE AS..

From 18 October 2019 to 1 March 2020, the Amsterdam Museum is presenting an exhibition of a large number of remarkable objects from its collection. Central to the exhibition is the question: How does a city museum go about collecting? On show will be a unique selection from the more than 100,000 objects that stand or are stacked in the museum's depot and which for whatever reason have rarely or never been exhibited. They are charming, strange and unexpected objects that you would not immediately think had been preserved by a museum.

9 April to 6 September 2020

AMSTERDAM. CITY OF BEER AND BREWERS

The Amsterdam Museum's summer exhibition shows just how much beer and Amsterdam have been inextricably linked over the centuries. The exhibition tells the story of beer from the thirteenth century to the present day. From its modest origins in the Middle Ages, when the city had just a few dozen breweries, through to the global success of beer brands such as Heineken and Amstel.
